September 13, 1989

The Honorable William H. Webster
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Bill:

As I indicated to you in our last meeting, Members of the RSC are anxious to meet with you concerning the following issues:

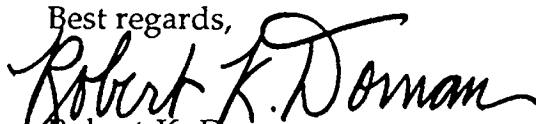

- An assessment of world wide anti-terrorism efforts;
- The state of US/USSR relations with respect to glasnost and perestroika;
- The current situation in Central America, including Panama and Nicaragua; and
- The situation in Afghanistan since the Soviet withdrawal.

Members of the Republican Study Committee feel we would benefit from a discussion with you about these and other issues which you may deem important.

Therefore, as Chairman of the House Republican Study Committee, the policy arm for 130 House conservatives, I would like to invite you to the Capitol to engage in a frank discussion of the issues facing your agency with our members. Because of our legislative schedule and to maximize the participation of the members, we would like to invite you to meet on a Wednesday or Thursday in October. If you are interested, your appointment secretary should call Renai Harvey at 225-0587.

Thank you for your consideration. I look forward to meeting with you to discuss these important issues.

Best regards,

Robert K. Dornan
Chairman
